

Body Imaging

Assistant, Associate or Full Professor

The Department of Radiology at UC San Diego (<http://radiology.ucsd.edu>) is committed to academic excellence and diversity within the faculty, staff, and student body and is seeking faculty members for the Abdominal and Pelvic Imaging Division.

The candidates are expected to participate in clinical activities and will be responsible for interpreting abdominal/pelvic CT, MRI, fluoroscopy, and ultrasound. The candidates will also be responsible for teaching fellows, residents, medical students, and visiting scholars, and will participate in division educational and administrative activities.

Candidates must have a MD or equivalent degree, or MD/PhD in health sciences-related fields.

Candidates must have or be eligible for a California medical license or equivalent certification/permit as determined by the Medical Board of California and be Board eligible or Board certified in diagnostic radiology by the American Board of Radiology.

Candidates must also have completed an ACGME-accredited or equivalent residency training program.

Candidates certified in body imaging are preferred. Candidates with previous experience in an academic setting are also preferred.

The appropriate series and appointment at the Assistant, Associate or Full Professor level will be based on the candidate's background and experience.
